5. Individual therapy,
6. Group therapy, and
7. Family therapy. This service actively involves the beneficiary and is tailored to the beneficiary's individual needs. The beneficiary remains the focus of the treatment service. Family therapy that involves the participation of a non-Medicaid eligible is for the direct benefit of the beneficiary. The service must actively involve the beneficiary in the sense of being tailored to the beneficiary's individual needs. There may be times when, based on clinical judgment, the beneficiary is not present during the delivery of the service, but remains the focus of the service.
